

Sermon.

(By the Rev. A. A. CURTIS, of Baltimore.)

ANTHEM.

"To Thee, Cherubim, and Seraphim, continually do cry,
Holy! Holy! Holy! Lord God of Sabaoth;
Heaven and earth are full of the majesty of Thy glory.

From the Dettingen "Te Deum," Handel.

Offertory.

[For the expenses of the Choir.]

ANTHEM.

"Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth; where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven; where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal."

James Pearce, Mus. Bac.

PRAYER AND BENEDICTION.

RECESSIONAL HYMN.

JERUSALEM the golden!
With milk and honey blest;
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice opprest.
I know not oh! I know not
What joys await us there;
With radiance of glory,
What bliss beyond compare.

They stand, those halls of Sion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng.
The Prince is ever in them,
The day-light is serene:
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

There is the Throne of David;
And there from care released,
The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast;
And they, who with their Leader
Have conquered in the fight,
For ever and for ever
Are clad in robes of white.

O sweet and blessed country,
The Home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessed country,
That eager hearts expect!
JESU, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest;
Who art, with GOD the FATHER,
And SPIRIT, ever blest. Amen.

Tuesday, November 1st, 1870.

Morning.

Holy Communion at Seven o'clock.

Morning Prayer and Holy Communion at Nine o'clock.

Evening.

Hour of Service, 7 1/2 o'clock.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN.

"Brightly Gleams our Banner!"

BRIGHTLY gleams our banner
Pointing to the sky,
Waving wanderers onward
To their home on high.
Journeying o'er the desert,
Gladly thus we pray,
And with hearts united
Take our heavenward way.
Brightly gleams our banner
Pointing to the sky,
Waving wanderers onwards
To their home on high.

JESU, LORD and Master,
At Thy sacred feet,
Here with hearts rejoicing
See Thy children meet;
Often have we left Thee,
Often gone astray,
Keep us, mighty SAVIOUR,
In the narrow way.
Brightly gleams, &c.

All our days direct us
In the way we go,
Lead us on victorious
Over every foe:
Bid Thine angels shield us
When the storm-clouds lour,
Pardon Thou and save us
In the last dread hour.
Brightly gleams, &c.

Then with Saints and Angels
May we join above,
Offering prayers and praises
At Thy Throne of love;
When the toll is over,
Then comes rest and peace,
JESUS in His Beauty,
Songs that never cease.
Brightly gleams our banner
Pointing to the sky,
Waving wanderers onwards
To their home on high. Amen.

HYMN.

Who are these like stars appearing
These, before God's Throne who stand?
Each a golden crown is wearing,
Who are all this glorious band?
Alleluia! hark they sing,
Praising loud their heavenly King.

Who are these in dazzling brightness,
Clothed in God's own righteousness,
These whose robes of purest whiteness
Shall their lustre still possess,
Still untouched by time's rude hand,
Whence comes all this glorious band?

These are they who have contended
For their SAVIOUR'S honour long,
Wrestling on till life was ended,
Following not the sinful throng:
These, who well the fight sustained,
Triumph by the LAMB have gained.

These are they whose hearts were riven,
Sore with woe and anguish tried,
Who in prayer full oft have striven
With the God they glorified;
Now, their painful conflict o'er,
God has bid them weep no more.

These, the ALMIGHTY contemplating
Did as priests before Him stand,
Soul and body always waiting
Day and night at His command:
Now in God's most holy place
Blest they stand before His Face. Amen.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN.

PILGRIMS OF THE NIGHT.

Hark, hark, my soul! angelic songs are swelling
O'er earth's green fields and ocean's wave beat shore;
How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling
Of that new life when sin shall be no more.
Angels of Jesus, angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night.

Onward we go; for this we hear them singing:
"Come weary souls; for Jesus bids you come,"
And through the dark its echoes sweetly ringing,
The music of the gospel leads us home.
Angels of Jesus, &c.

Far, far away, like bells at evening pealing,
The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and sea;
And laden souls by thousands meekly stealing;
Kind Shepherd turn their weary steps to Thee.
Angels of Jesus, &c.

Rest comes at length; though life be long and dreary,
The day must dawn, and darksome night be past;
All Journeys end in welcome to the weary,
And Heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.
Angels of Jesus, &c.

Cheer up my soul! faith's moonbeams softly glisten
Upon the breast of life's most troubled sea,
And it will cheer thy drooping heart to listen
To those glad songs which angels mean for thee.
Angels of Jesus, &c.

Angels sing on, your faithful watches keeping;
Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above,
While we toil on and soothe ourselves with weeping,
Till life's long night shall break in endless love.
Angels of Jesus, &c.

HYMN.

VOS SANCTI PROCERES.

Holy leaders, quires supernal, royal princes of the sky,
Now we join our earthly anthems to the songs ye raise on high.
First of all, with heavenly brightness, see the Virgin Mother glow,
Pledge that in her Son our Saviour, we a gracious Judge shall know.
Next the Throne, our prayers presenting, wait the countless angel bands,
And the Baptist plunged in torrents of the light eternal stand.
They whose voices, Christ proclaiming, over every land were poured;
Those twelve preachers here are seated, with the Prophets, of the Lord.
Martyrs purpled in their life-blood, Virgins purer than the snow,
Lillies white, and ruddy roses, on the Lamb's glad pathway throw.
Fed by God himself are Prelates, who their sheepfold truly kept;
Here the gracious Father wipeth all the tears of them that wept.
Holy leaders, quires supernal, royal princes of the sky,
Now we join our earthly anthems to the songs ye raise on high.
Praise the Father, source of all things; praise the Son who earth restored;
Be the Spirit, who inflames us with his fiery breath, adored. Amen.

Organ Recital

PLAYED BY

S. WESLEY SEARS

ASSISTED BY

MASTER LEON KRAFT

SOPRANO

Tuesday Evening, October 30, 1906

Eight o'clock

1. Pastoral Sonata Josef Rheinberger
German, 1839-1901
 Pastorale
 Intermezzo
 Fugue

Just why the title "Pastoral" should be given to this sonata is difficult to understand, built as it is upon the Eighth Gregorian Psalm Tone, and being essentially churchly in character, thereby making the term "Sonata Religieuse" much more appropriate. It is perhaps the most beautiful and interesting of all the works of this great modern German composer, excepting possibly his Opus 154, which is about on an equality. While not brilliant in the ordinary sense of the word, this composition is absolutely sparkling in its color, and is most profound in the musical thought expressed.

2. Andante Homer N. Bartlett
American, 1846

This is an interesting little number from the Boston organist's fine suite recently composed for his chosen instrument.

3. Soprano Solo

Agnus Dei (from Service in B Flat) . . . S. Wesley Sears
American

4. Prelude and Fugue in A Major . . . Johann Sebastian Bach
German, 1685-1750

Bach has left behind him many splendid preludes and fugues, but in none has he preserved the unity of musical thought between the prelude and the fugue to the same extent as in the above in A Major. Although rarely seen on concert programmes, it is quite as worthy a work of art as his more frequently played, though no more beautiful, works.

5. Offertoire in D Flat Theodore Cesar Salome
French, 1834-1896

In common with many other Frenchmen Salome possessed the wonderful gift of melody, combined with a fine sense of proportion, and in none of his compositions has he displayed his fertility of idea and mastery of form more than in this extremely attractive offertoire.

6. Soprano Solo George Frederic Haendel
I Know That My Redeemer Liveth

7. { (a) Cantilene } Raymond Huntingdon Woodman
{ (b) Scherzoso } American, 1861

America is very, very young musically, but it is a youth of extreme precocity, for she is already producing many of the world's greatest singers and instrumentalists, and less than a century will surely find this country at least as far advanced musically as any other nation, from every standpoint. A present day writer has said that "among the leading organists of America we find many of the men who have made the brief musical history of our country," and of contemporary organists and composers none holds a higher place than Raymond Huntingdon Woodman, the writer of the above most charming Cantilene and Scherzoso. A hearing of these numbers will speedily convince the hearer that his writings are characterized by the "divine spark" of musical genius, one of the greatest gifts to man. Mr. Woodman was a pupil of the mighty Cesar Franck, to whom contemporary France owes the same debt, musically, that Germany will forever owe to the immortal Bach.

8. Postlude in E Flat Henry Smart
English, 1813-1879

This Postlude, by the famous blind organist, is an especially fine specimen of the solidity, dignity and beauty of the English school of music.

The next Recital in this Series will be given on Tuesday evening,
November 6th, at Eight o'clock.

The Men's Association of St. Clement's Church was formed to serve the Church and the community. As this is the first issue of our own news sheet we will take the liberty of repeating some of the items that have appeared already in St. Clement's Magazine in giving a brief sketch of its history.

The first meeting was called for December 4th, 1919, and the organization was made and officers elected. The first work that was undertaken by the Association was to organize a series of dances, and the first one was given on December 30th, proving such a success that a series of four additional dances was arranged for, and so far the Leap Year and Valentine Dance have been held, leaving the Easter dance and the May Hop to complete the season. The Association feels happy to have been able to carry through these dances, which have developed such interest among the younger members of the congregation.

The second outstanding event was the Club Night on February 16th, which was arranged in the form of a Coffee House, partly to have a pleasant evening and bring the men together in better fellowship and partly to stimulate the idea of progress towards the organization of the Coffee House, which it is hoped to establish in the neighborhood of the Church. It is considered by all that the evening was extremely successful, both in the entertainment and in the spirit of friendship that was developed among those who were present and the interest in the real Coffee House has been increased by the success of the temporary one.

The latest activity of the Association has been to organize a Boys' Club for the boys and younger men of the Church and the neighborhood. This was started on Monday evening, March 22d, when the boys were invited to attend the regular meeting and after a musical entertainment the organization was effected and the following young men elected as officers:

President, W. S. Smith
Vice-President, J. Crawford
Secretary, J. Fortune
Treasurer, Robert Crawford

The enthusiasm with which all present joined in from the young men down to the jolly rascals, who devoured refreshments in seemingly unlimited degree, should give this organization a good start, and it is hoped may carry it through towards a permanent existence.

The indirect results of the meetings of the Association are probably even more noticeable than the recital of the visible accomplishments would indicate. In trying to serve the Church the best method has seemed to be an endeavor to increase the feeling of friendship and cordiality between the men who attend, and this has been felt not only by the regular attendants, but by strangers as well. Few persons would have ventured the remark a few months ago that strangers coming to St. Clement's Church would remark on the warmth of welcome and the evidence of good feeling prevailing, but such is the case at present and the Men's Association hopes that it has been due to its activities in a large degree.

The Question Box

Is there anything you wish to know about the Men's Association of S. Clement's Church? Its aims, activities or benefits?

Have you a Boy or Girl who is interested in sports and healthful recreation? Do you want them to be healthy, robust, christian men and women?

Ask us about the Boys' or Girls' Club.

COLLECT

O GOD, who makest us to rejoice in the yearly solemnity of Blessed Clement, Thy Martyr and Bishop: favorable grant that we who keep his festival may likewise imitate his fortitude in suffering. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with Thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one GOD, world without end. A-men.

EPISTLE (Philippians III: 17)

Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample. (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.) For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto His glorious body, according to the working whereby He is able even to subdue all things unto Himself. Therefore, my brethren, dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved. I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord. And I intreat thee also, true yoke-fellow, help those women which labored with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow-laborers, whose names are in the book of life.

GRADUAL Plain Chant

Ps. 110. The Lord sware, and will not repent: Thou art a Priest forever after the order of Melchisedech.

V. The Lord said unto my lord: sit thou on my right hand.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia.

V. This is a priest, whom the Lord hath crowned. R. Alleluia.

SEQUENCE HYMN—Vigili et Sancti..... Melody from Geistliche Kirchen-gesäng, Cöln, 1623

Ye watchers and ye holy ones,
Bright Seraphs, Cherubim and Thrones,
Raise the glad strain, Alleluya!
Cry out, Dominions, Princedoms, Powers,
Virtues, Archangels, Angels' Choirs,
Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya!

O higher than the Cherubim,
More glorious than the Seraphim,
Lead their praises, Alleluya!
Thou Bearer of the Eternal Word,
Most gracious, magnify the Lord,
Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya!

Respond, ye souls in endless rest,

All Saints triumphant, raise the song,
Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya!

O friends, in gladness let us sing,
Supernal anthems echoing,
Alleluya! Alleluya!
To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya!

GOSPEL (S. Matthew XXIV: 42)

Watch therefore, for ye know not at what hour your Lord doth come. But know this, that if the good man of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up. Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh. Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season? Blessed is that servant whom his lord, when he cometh, shall find so doing. Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

SERMON—THE REVEREND WILLIAM PITT McCUNE, PH.D., Rector, S. Ignatius' Church, New York City

OFFERTORY—Blessed City, Heavenly Salem..... Oriel

Blessed city, heavenly Salem,
Vision dear of peace and love,
Who of living stones art builded
In the height of heaven above,
And, with angel hosts encircled,
As a bride doth earthward move;

From celestial realms descending,
Bridal glory round thee shed,
Meet for Him whose love espoused thee,
To thy Lord shalt thou be led;
All thy streets, and all thy bulwarks,
Of pure gold are fashioned.

Bright thy gates of pearl are shining,
They are open evermore;
And by virtue of His merits
Thither faithful souls do soar,
Who for Christ's dear Name in this world
Pain and tribulation bore.

Many a blow and biting sculpture
Polish'd well those stones elect,
In their places now compacted
By the heavenly Architect,
Who therewith hath will'd forever
That His Palace should be deck'd.

Christ is made the sure Foundation,
Christ the Head and Corner-Stone,
Chosen of the Lord, and precious,
Binding all the Church in one,
Holy Sion's help for ever,
And her confidence alone.

All that dedicated city,
Dearly loved of God on high,
In exultant jubilation
Pours perpetual melody,
God the One in Three adoring
In glad hymns eternally.

To this Temple, where we call Thee,
Come, O Lord of hosts, to-day;
With Thy wonted loving-kindness
Hear Thy servants as they pray;
And Thy fullest benediction
Shed within its walls away.

Here vouchsafe to all Thy servants
What they ask of Thee to gain,
What they gain from Thee forever
With the Blessed to retain,
And hereafter in Thy glory
Evermore with Thee to reign.

Laud and honour to the FATHER.
Laud and honour to the SON,
Laud and honour to the SPIRIT,
Ever THREE, and ever ONE,
Consubstantial, Co-eternal,
While unending ages run. Amen.

FESTIVAL PROCESSIONJerusalem, My Happy Home

INTROIT—Dixit Dominus Plain Chant

Thus saith the Lord: My words which I have put in thy mouth shall not depart out of thy mouth: and thy gifts shall be accepted upon Mine altar. Psalm 112. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord: he hath great delight in His commandments. Glory be. Thus saith the Lord:

KYRIE ELEISON (Messe Solennelle, Ste. Cecilia)..... Gounod

COLLECT

O GOD, who makest us to rejoice in the yearly solemnity of Blessed Clement, Thy Martyr and Bishop: favorably grant that we who keep his festival may likewise imitate his fortitude in suffering. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with Thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one GOD, world without end. Amen.

EPISTLE (Philippians III: 17)

Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample. (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.) For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto His glorious body, according to the working whereby He is able even to subdue all things unto Himself. Therefore, my brethren, dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved. I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord. And I entreat thee also, true yoke-fellow, help those women which labored with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow-laborers, whose names are in the book of life.

GRADUAL Plain Chant

Ps. 110. The Lord sware, and will not repent: Thou art a Priest forever after the order of Melchisedech.

V. The Lord said unto my lord: sit thou on my right hand.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia.

V. This is a priest, whom the Lord hath crowned. R. Alleluia.

SEQUENCE HYMN—Vigili et Sancti.....Melody from Geistliche Kirchen-gesäng, Cöln, 1623

Ye watchers and ye holy ones,
Bright Seraphs, Cherubim and Thrones,
Raise the glad strain, Alleluya!
Cry out, Dominions, Princedoms, Powers,
Virtues, Archangels, Angels' Choirs,
Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya!

O higher than the Cherubim,
More glorious than the Seraphim,
Lead their praises, Alleluya!
Thou Bearer of the Eternal Word,
Most gracious, magnify the Lord,
Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya!

Respond, ye souls in endless rest,
Ye Patriarchs and Prophets blest,
Alleluya! Alleluya!
Ye holy Twelve, ye Martyrs strong,
All Saints triumphant, raise the song,
Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya!

Mission Hymn

Low at Thy pierced Feet,
Saviour of all,
Helpless and sorrowful,
Prostrate I fall.
O cast me not away,
Forgive my sin this day,
Forgive my sin,
All, all my sin.

Sinful my life has been,
Unclean, unclean,
All my iniquity
Thine eye hath seen;
Cleanse Thou my soul today,
Wash all my sins away,
In Thine own Blood,
Thy precious Blood.

By all Thy grief and pain,
Forgive me now;
Before Thy Cross in shame
Lowly I bow.
Lord, let that blood of Thine
Wash now this soul of mine:
Wash Thou my soul,
My guilty soul.

Thou didst for me endure
Dread Calvary,
Sin's punishment and shame,
All, all for me.
On Thee my guilt was laid,
By Thee my debt was paid,
To set me free,
And keep me free.

Lord, I accept Thee now,
Accept Thou me;
I have delayed too long,
And grieved Thee.
By all Thy love to me,
I give myself to Thee;
Make me Thine own,
All, all Thine own.

—J. Stephens, 1863.

Solemn Votive Mass of All Saints

ENTRANCE OF THE BISHOP—Coronation March.....G. Meyerbeer

HYMN—

Thou, Who at Thy first Eucharist didst pray
That all Thy Church might be for ever
one,

Grant us at every Eucharist to say
With longing heart and soul, "Thy will be done,"

Oh, may we all one Bread, one Body be,
Through this blest Sacrament of Unity.

For all Thy Church, O LORD, we intercede;
Make Thou our sad divisions soon to
cease;

Draw us the nearer each to each, we plead,
By drawing all to Thee, O Prince of peace;

Thus may we all one Bread, one Body be,
Through this blest Sacrament of Unity.

We pray Thee too for wanderers from Thy Fold;

O bring them back, Good Shepherd of the sheep,

Back to the Faith which Saints believed of old,

Back to the Church which still that Faith
doth keep;

Soon may we all one Bread, one Body be,
Through this blest Sacrament of Unity.

So, LORD, at length when Sacraments shall
cease,

May we be one with all Thy Church above,
One with Thy Saints in one unbroken peace,
One with Thy Saints in one unbounded
love:

More blessed still, in peace and love to be
One with the TRINITY in Unity. Amen.

INTROIT (Judicant)—The Saints judge the nations, and have dominion over the people: and their Lord shall reign for ever.

Psalm. Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous: for it becometh well the just to be thankful.

Glory be to the Father

The Saints judge.....

GRADUAL—O fear the Lord, all ye Saints of his: for they that fear him lack nothing. But they that seek the Lord: shall want no manner of thing that is good.

ALLELUIA—Alleluia. Alleluia. Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden: and I will give you rest. Alleluia.

HYMN—

Lo! round the Throne, a glorious band,
The Saints in countless myriads stand,
Of every tongue redeem'd to God,
Array'd in garments wash'd in Blood.

They see their Saviour face to face,
And sing the triumphs of His grace;
Him day and night they ceaseless praise,
To Him the loud thanksgiving raise:

Through tribulation great they came;
They bore the cross, despised the shame;
From all their labours now they rest,
In God's eternal glory blest.

"Worthy the LAMB, for sinners slain,
Through endless years to live and reign;
Thou hast redeem'd us by Thy Blood,
And made us kings and priests to God."

O may we tread the sacred road
That Saints and holy Martyrs trod;
Wage to the end the glorious strife,
And win, like them, a crown of life. Amen.

PHILADELPHIA

DEAR PARISHIONERS:

Next Sunday, May 28th, is the Feast of Pentecost, the great Festival of the Church. On this Day we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit "which filleth the whole world", and by His invigorating power gives Life to the Holy Church of God.

With so many of our young men and women serving throughout the world with the Military Forces of our Country, and yet in contact with the Church and the Sacraments wherever they are, we have come to realize as never before the World-Wide Character of the Christian Church. Wherever Members of the Church are to be found, in Italy, in Africa, in England, in America, in Purgatory, in Heaven, we are all One in our Lord, united by our Living Membership in the Body of Christ, and in Communion with each other through the mystical bond of Prayer.

On Whitsunday we make our annual corporate offering for the Missionary Work of the Church; for the maintenance of the Church and the Sacraments with our Troops wherever they may be; and for imparting the Catholic Faith to all those who have not as yet received it. God has blessed us richly in our Parish with the privileges of Catholic Worship and free access to the Sacraments. Let us show our appreciation of these benefits by a careful Confession and a devout Communion on Sunday, and by our generous gifts for the great cause of Missions, and for extending the work of our Chaplains who move with our Service Men wherever they are sent.

May the Holy Spirit of God bless us richly in His Holy Feast of Pentecost.

Affectionately your Friend and Pastor,

Franklin Jomer -

Jubilee Notes

IN CONNECTION WITH THE RECTOR'S JUBILEE, this Resolution was unanimously adopted at the Vestry Meeting last Tuesday afternoon and has been spread on the Minutes and Records of the Parish:—"The Wardens and Vestrymen of S. Clement's Church desire to place on record their hearty felicitations to their Rector, the Reverend Franklin Joiner, D.D., on the completion of Twenty-five years of useful and highly valued service to the Parish. These have been fruitful years of blessing and development, and their prayer and hope is that he may be granted many more years to minister to the people of this Parish and to the Diocese of which he has been so faithful a servant. Our sincere regards and affectionate greetings go out to him on this notable anniversary."

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL has been entirely reorganized this winter. The children have been divided into two groups. The smaller children meet on the second floor of the Parish House, and are under the direction of the Sisters. The older children meet in S. John's Chapel, and are under the direction of the Assistant Priests. The method of teaching for the older children will be the well tried Catechism, followed by a homily and questions. Adults will be welcomed to this instruction and may sit in the rear of the Chapel. The Members of the Mothers' Union meet in the south room of the Parish House at the same time, under the direction of Mrs. Frederick Cooper.

THE CHILDRENS' MASS begins at 9:15 o'clock, and parents are urged to be here with their children for the beginning of the Mass. Hymns are sung at this Mass, and the Father Rector gives a short address immediately after the Creed. At the close of the Mass, before they go into their Catechism, the children make a corporate visit to the Shrine of Our Lady of Clemency. The Church cannot do its full part in the instruction of the children unless we have the full and hearty co-operation of the parents. We urge parents to come themselves to this Mass at 9:15 each Sunday morning and bring the children with them. The principle of family worship in the Church needs to be revived.

MR. THERON BALL CLEMENT with his family has moved from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh, where he is to be permanently established in business. For this reason he has resigned from the Vestry. His resignation was accepted last Tuesday with great regret and with deep appreciation of his valuable services to the Parish both as a Vestryman and as Chairman of the Finance Committee. Mr. Frederick Cooper was elected to fill out Mr. Clement's unexpired term on the Vestry. Mr. Henry B. Jacobs was elected to fill out the unexpired term of Mr. Dudley T. Corning, who resigned from the Vestry at Easter. We give to these two gentlemen a most hearty welcome into our "official" family.

MR. HAROLD G. PILE was appointed Chairman of a new Vestry Committee, that of an Ushers' Committee, with Mr. Booth and Mr. Jacobs as the other members. It will be the duty of this Committee to see that at least two Ushers are always on service every Sunday morning.

THE DIOCESAN ALTAR GUILD will have their October meeting in the Church House tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All the women of the Diocese are invited to attend these monthly meetings and to identify themselves with the work of the Altar Guild.

THE COMMITTEES OF THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR are asked to attend the first business meeting next Friday evening at seven o'clock in the Parish House. Miss Hopkins is eager to meet every one who helped with the Bazaar last year, and will welcome any others who would like to help this year. The Date of the Bazaar is, Thursday, December 6th.

THE CHOIR WILL GIVE A MUSICALE in the Parish House on Thursday evening, October 25th to be followed by a social time. The proceeds of this evening's entertainment will be added to the Bazaar Expense Fund. We try to accumulate enough money during the year to cover the expenses of the Bazaar so that everything received at the Bazaar is clear profit. We now have $201.00 in this Advance Fund and we would like to have another hundred dollars.

WE WELCOME THE BISHOP OF THE DIOCESE most heartily this morning and appreciate highly the honour he does us by preaching the Sermon on the auspicious occasion of Father Joiner's Twenty-fifth Anniversary as Rector of S. Clement's Church.

Parish Notes

WE GIVE A HEATY WELCOME to our friends, both old and new, who are visiting us today. We hope you will feel at home at S. Clement's, and make use of all the opportunities for Prayer and Worship that our Parish affords, and that we have prepared especially for the Period of General Convention.

IT IS OUR PARISH CUSTOM to loiter a bit after the Solemn Mass and visit with each other in the Church Corridor. We want you to stay with us, too, and meet your friends, and speak to the Parish Priests and the Sisters.

THE LEAFLET FOR TODAY and the Extra Notices that are available give you a list of the Special Masses that occur during the coming week. Please make these occasions known to your friends; come yourselves, and bring others with you. Catholics must be Missionaries. Here is an opportunity.

DR. HENRY STEPHEN FRY, for 34 years Choir Master and Organist of S. Clement's Church, died after a long illness on Friday of last week. He was buried from his Parish Church in Cynwyd on Tuesday. Dr. Fry retired from active service in 1942, and has been in declining health ever since. He was a great musician, and thoroughly understood the place of the Organ and the Choir in Liturgical Worship. The music on the great festivals, under his direction, was always a notable event in musical circles. He was greatly beloved and respected by all the members of our congregation, and especially by the men and boys who served under him. A Requiem was offered here on the day following his burial, and a memorial service will be arranged for some date later in the autumn. May he rest in peace.

WEDNESDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY of this week are the Autumn Ember Days, days of both Fast and Abstinence. At these quarterly seasons our prayers are asked for all Bishops, Priests and Deacons; for all Seminaries and Theological Schools; and for all Seminarians and Aspirants for Holy Orders. It is most fitting at this time that we should remember especially the Bishops and Priests now assembled in General Convention; and pray for the conversion of all men to the Catholic Faith, and for the Reunion of Christendom.

ON FRIDAY EVENING at 8 o'clock, the Stations of the Cross will be recited in the Church for the Ember-tide Intentions, to be followed by Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The Choir will be present for this Service.

THE SISTERS OF THE HOLY NATIVITY will be glad at any time to see their friends and the Associates of their Community at S. Clement's Mission House, 110, North Woodstock Street, just a few steps from the Cherry Street exit of the Church.

THE ALL SAINTS SISTERS OF THE POOR will also be glad to see their friends at S. Anna's Home, 2016, Race Street, which is just a few steps beyond S. Clement's Mission House. The All Saints Sisters maintain at this address a delightful home for elderly women. We would like to have you know more about this notable work.

WE HAVE NEITHER NEED nor desire to benefit financially through the guests who may visit S. Clement's at the extra Masses and Devotional Services during the General Convention, yet we are bold to ask their generous alms for Catholic Missions and Catholic Educational Work. All the Monies received here on these occasions will be given, under the direction of our Vestry, to Catholic Organizations in the Church for the furtherance of their work and the advancement of our Cause.

HOLY CROSS PRESS has a display of their publications, The Holy Cross Magazine, and their many Tracts, which will be found in the Church Corridor, to the rear of the center door. Do not leave the Church without giving the Press a visit. Your attention is also called to a fine assortment of Tracts on a variety of subjects that will be found in the Parish Tract Cases in the Apple Tree Street Vestibule.

IT IS GREAT MISSIONARY STRATEGY to inclose leaflets and tracts in your letters, and to have a few in your bag or in your pocket that you can leave in the trolley cars and in other public places. They are bound to be picked up and read. You cannot estimate what good so simple an act may accomplish. Do not forget to be a Missionary for the True Faith of the Church.

This brief recital outlines the growth of harmonized vocal music from a period when it had passed the experimental stage to that in which it achieved artistic perfection. An elaborately organized school of music of the west of England, which has utterly disappeared, has as its sole survival the famous Reading Rota. The structure and harmonies of this exceptional piece will contrast sharply with the barrenness of our other XIII century example. It appears to be centuries ahead of its period, and not until the time of Dunstable and his followers do we find its equal.

CAROL FOR S. CLEMENT'S DAY

It was about November-tide,
A long, long time ago,
When good S. Clement testified
The faith that now we know.
Right boldly then he said his say,
Before a furious King;
And therefore on S. Clement's Day
We go a-Clementing.

2.
Work in the mines they gave him then,
To try the brave old saint;
And there two thousand Christian men
With thirst were like to faint.
He prayed a prayer, and out of clay
He made the waters spring.
And therefore on S. Clement's Day
We go a-Clementing.

3.
An anchor 'round his neck they tied,
And cast him in the sea;
And bravely as he lived he died,
And gallantly went free.
He rests a many miles away,
Yet here his name we sing,
As all upon S. Clement's Day
We go a-Clementing.

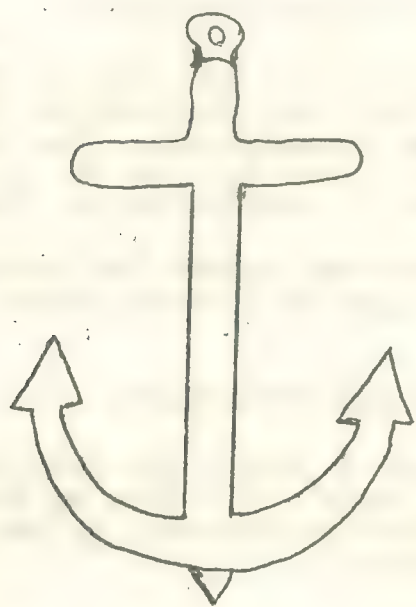

4.
Our fathers kept it long ago,
And their request we make:
Good Christians, one small mite bestow,
For sweet S. Clement's sake;
And make his feast as glad and gay
As if it came in spring,
When all upon S. Clement's Day
We go a-Clementing.

1. AULD LANG SYNE

Should auld acquaintance be forgot
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot
And days of auld lang syne?
For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne,
We'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

We're Clementines from way back when
From eighteen fifty-six,
We had some troubles way back then
But never on the Styx.
With holy courage, high morale
And spirit we've progressed;
Now lift your voices high in thanks
For we've been richly blessed.

2. Tune: MY PONY BOY

Mister Booth, Mister Booth
You're to-night's M.C. forsooth.
So that we may forget
Any woe or care
You'll tell quips and present
Guests with savoir-fare.
Heartily, merrily, we all say - GOOD
Luck, Mister Booth.

3. Tune: CLEMENTINE

Mister Kremer; he's our Warden
He's a stalwart clementine.
Has his hands full
Trying to guide us
And to keep us all in line.

He's a dandy; he's a fine one
As a Churchman he's benign.
All our members
Gladly say that
He's a darling Clementine.

* * * * *

4. Tune: SIDE-WALKS OF NEW YORK

North aisle, South aisle,
All around the kirk,
Men go passing those silver plates
To give John Sellers work.
He's Accounting Warden
He has plenty to do
Counting dollars and paying bills
And saving every sou.

5. Tune: I WONDER WHO'S KISSING HER NOW

We hear that in our early days
Our services were all the craze;
Some parishes aimed to be just as high,
Made the try
To comply.
To those who with faith did embark
And set our distinguishing mark -
We're thankful that you
Introduced Fortescue;
We venerate you with loud praise.

6. Tune: COMIN' THROUGH THE RYE

Thinking over all our neighbors
We may well agree,
We have one whose friendliness
Is to a high degree.
He's a priest whose high esteem
Is known throughout our age.
You'll meet him down on Locust Street
Of course, - he's Father Paige.

7. Tune: REUBEN, REUBEN

Thomas, Thomas, we've been thinking
What a hard job wald be ours,
If we didn't have your knowledge
And your mystifying powers.

"Thomas, Thomas," we say daily,
"Where is this and where is that?
What's become of what-cha-call-it?
We don't know where we are at."

Thomas, Thomas comes a-running,
"Is there something I can do?"
He's the man who keeps S. Clement's
Always ready just for you.

8. Tune: SOLOMON LEVI

His name is Doctor Holroyd;
He has dignity deluxe;
He's travelled nearly everywhere
In trains and trams and trucks.
He's studied all the liturgies
And knows them in and out;
In science, too, he's so well versed
His word we dare not doubt.

Oh, Doctor Holroyd, -Tra, la-la-la-la-la-la.
Oh, Doctor Holroyd, -Tra, la-la-la-la-la-la-
la, -la, -la, -la.

To-night he's going to tell us
Of our parish history,
Of priests whose godly fortitude
Sounds like a mystery,
Of bishops whose pronouncements
Were, to say the least, unkind.
We mustn't sing another word,
But let him speak his mind.

HYMN

Faith of our fathers! living still
In spite of dungeon, fire and sword,
O how our hearts beat high with joy
Whene'er we hear that glorious word:
Faith of our fathers, holy faith!
We shall be true to thee till death.

Faith of our fathers! we will love
Both friend and foe in all our strife,
And preach thee, too, as love knows how
By kindly deeds and virtuous life:
Faith of our fathers, holy faith!
We will be true to thee till death.

The Centennial year began with a Solemn Mass a year ago this day, asking God's blessing upon our efforts and plans for celebrating this 100th year of our worshipping in this consecrated Church. Now we close the year with another Solemn Mass, this time in profound thanksgiving to Almighty God; to the Blessed Virgin, Our Lady of Clemency; and to our Holy Patron S. Clement for abundant grace and many blessings bestowed upon this Parish in this year.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

during the

CENTENNIAL YEAR

of

S. Clement's Church

PHILADELPHIA

1864 — — — — 1964

The Parish was organized and its Charter granted on September 13, 1855.

The corner-stone was laid on May 12, 1856.

The Church was consecrated on Tuesday, April 12, 1864.

CONCERNING THE CONSECRATION OF A CHURCH

Some of you may be wondering,—and with good reason,—“Why celebrate so elaborately on the anniversary of the consecration of a Church building?” Because, from the viewpoint of the Church itself this is the most important event in the history of a Church building. A near-parallel is this: the baptism of a child in comparison with his physical birth. Both of these events are extremely important to the child and to his family. The baptism makes the child a member of Christ's Body; because of his baptism the child is a candidate for heaven. The Church building, unconsecrated, is rather like the unbaptized child. It serves a good purpose, but not in the ideal way. The consecration, by the Bishop, sets that building apart from all secular purposes. The building is set apart for the worship of Almighty God and for the veneration of the Saints and Angels. As far as stone and mortar are capable of possessing character, those that are used in the structure of a Church, have the distinctive character of “God's House”. It is impossible to unbaptize a person, even though he deny the Faith. In spite of his rebellion, he still is a member of Christ's Body. The character of Christian, imposed through baptism, is indelible,—it is forever.

The character of a Church building, imposed at its consecration, is not entirely comparable with that of baptism because the building is passive. It takes what is given to it; it can neither agree nor disagree with the intentions of its owner or builder. Yet, all of the building's lifelessness notwithstanding, it is regarded by the Church as having a high degree of holiness because of its consecration.

Some of the Christian festivals are directly associated with the dates of consecrations. For example, September 29th in no way is associated with any activity of S. Michael and his host of Angels. No record has been left, to our knowledge, of the dates when S. Michael was in touch with S. John; hence the Apocalypse makes no hint of year, month or days. But the great Basilica of S. Michael on Via Salaria in Rome was consecrated on September 29th, and for this reason the festival is included in most of the kalendars of western Christendom, including that of our Prayer Book.

Our House of Holy Clement was made a truly Christian House, a place set aside for Catholic worship on Tuesday, April 12, 1864. After one hundred years of worship, in earlier days often punctuated with sudden blasts of episcopal persecution, its holiness has taken on the attribute of venerableness. We of S. Clement's now look forward to the decades that lie between 1964 and 2064, and we try to imagine the beauty of the noble and majestic S. Clement's Church when the Christian community of that day celebrates the Parish's two hundredth anniversary. For all that has come to S. Clement's in its first century we say “Thank you, dear God, thank you.”

S. CLEMENT'S KALENDAR FOR 1964

January 1st. Centennial Year will be ushered in by a Solemn Mass in the presence of the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Pennsylvania. Bishop Armstrong will bless our observance of Centennial Year and will address the congregation.

The choir of boys and men will sing a new Mass from Holland,—Missa Festiva by Marius Monnikendam. The accompaniment will be organ with trumpets and trombones.

January 6th. The Epiphany. Solemn Mass at 6:15 p.m. An informal supper will follow in the Parish Hall, during which due recognition will be given to the fact that this is the eighth anniversary of Father Elwell's Institution as Rector of S. Clement's.

February 2nd-3rd. Sexagesima. Candlemas. Sermon by the Very Reverend Donald J. Parsons, Th.D., Dean of Nashotah House. Special collection for Nashotah House.

Monday. Purification of the B.V.M. Solemn Mass at 6:15 p.m., followed by a covered dish supper.

February 12, Ash Wednesday. On the Fridays of Lent we shall have sermons by six of the younger and newer priests of the diocese. The 8 p.m. Friday service will be Stations of the Cross and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The preachers are:

Feb. 14. Father John E. Lamb, Associate Librarian at P.D.S.

Feb. 21. Father Stanley E. Johnson, Chaplain, U. of Pa.

ABOUT THE PLAY

"The Trials of S. Clement's Parish" is the sixth and final event in our parish's Bicentennial Cultural Series which began in January of this year.

As part of our celebration for our patronal feast, S. Clement's Day, the men of the parish are re-creating portions of the famed "Ritual Trials" of the 1870's as narrated from the reminiscences of the Reverend Erskine Wright. It was during this period that the clergy of S. Clement's were under fire both from the Vestry and the Diocese for their "ritual rascality". Despite two extended and well publicized trials, the Anglo-Catholic traditions of the parish survived. In fact, S. Clement's and other eastern American Anglo-Catholic parishes continued to thrive and have a significant influence upon the Episcopal Church in America.

Thus, in this Bicentennial year, S. Clement's salutes our nation's 200 years of political freedom and our own parish's 100 years of religious freedom.

"The Trials" was written by several members of the parish based on documents and records published at the time. The narration represents the recollections of a former parishioner who served as curate for three years before becoming the Rector of Christ Church, Danville, Pennsylvania in 1899. The Reverend Erskine Wright grew up in the parish in the later part of the nineteenth century and can recall the "golden age" of the Cowleys as well as the events and times of the early twentieth century at S. Clement's.

Those who helped to compile the records and write the script include Will Bricker, Pamela Chicone, Peter Hewitt, Robin Lawrason, May Lilly, John Miller, Fr. Lloyd, Josephine Smoluk and Stuart Yost.

Our Father . . . And lead us not into temptation:

But deliver us from evil.

From the gate of hell:

Deliver his soul, O Lord.

May he rest in peace. A-men.

O Lord, hear my prayer:

And let my cry come unto thee.

The Lord me with you.

And with thy spirit.

Let us pray—

O God, whose nature and property is ever to have mercy and forgive: receive our humble petitions for the soul of thy servant N. (handmaiden M.) whom thou hast bidden to depart out of this world; deliver him not into the hand of the enemy, neither forget him for ever; but command thy holy angels to receive him and bring him into the country of paradise; that for as much as he hoped and believed in thee, he may not suffer the pains of hell, but possess the joys of eternal life; Through Christ our Lord. A-men.

Rest eternal grant unto him, O Lord:

V. And let light perpetual shine upon him.

May he rest in peace. A-men.

May his soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. A-men.

THE LESSON I Thessalonians IV: 13
Brethren, I would not have you to be ignorant concerning them which are asleep, that they sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God; and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

GRADUAL Requiem Aeternam
Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord: and may light perpetual shine upon them.
Psalm—The righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance: he will not be afraid of any evil tidings.

TRACT Absolve, Domine
Absolve, O Lord, the souls of all the faithful departed from every bond of sin. And by the help of thy grace may they be worthy to escape the judgment of condemnation. And attain the fruition of everlasting light.

SEQUENCE HYMN—Dies Irae

Day of Wrath! O day of mourning!
See fulfill'd the prophets' warning!
Heav'n and earth in ashes burning!
Oh, what fear man's bosom rendeth
When from Heav'n the Judge descendeth,
On Whose sentence all dependeth!
Wondrous sound the trumpet flingeth,
Through earth's sepulchres it ringeth,
All before the Throne it bringeth.

Death is struck, and nature quaking,
All creation is awaking,
To its Judge an answer making.

Lo! the Book exactly worded,
Wherein all hath been recorded;
Thence shall judgment be awarded.
When the Judge His seat attaineth,
And each hidden deed arraigneth,
Nothing unavenged remaineth.

What shall I, frail man, be pleading,
Who for me be interceding,
When the just are mercy needing?

King of Majesty tremendous,
Who dost free salvation send us,
Fount of pity, then befriend us!

Think, good JESU, my salvation
Caused Thy wondrous Incarnation;
Leave me not to reprobation.

Faint and weary Thou hast sought me,
On the Cross of suffering bought me;
Shall such grace be vainly brought me?
Righteous Judge! for sin's pollution
Grant Thy gift of absolution,
Ere that day of retribution.

Guilty, now I pour my moaning,
All my shame with anguish owning;
Spare, O God, Thy suppliant groaning.
Thou the sinful woman savedst;
Thou the dying thief forgavest;
And to me a hope vouchsafest.

Worthless are my prayers and sighing;
Yet, good LORD, in grace complying,
Rescue me from fires undying.
With Thy favour'd sheep O place me,
Nor among the goats abase me,
But to Thy right hand upraise me.

While the wicked are confounded,
Doom'd to flames of woe unbanded,
Call me with Thy Saints surrounded.

Low I kneel, with heart-submission,
See, like ashes, my contrition;
Help me in my last condition.

Ah! that day of tears and mourning!
From the dust of earth returning
Man for judgment must prepare him;

Spare, O God, in mercy spare him! LORD, all pitying, JESU Blest,
Grant them Thine eternal rest. Amen.

THE HOLY GOSPEL S. John, VI: 37
At that time: Jesus said to the multitudes of the Jews: All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

OFFERTORY

O Lord Jesus Christ, King of majesty, deliver the souls of all the faithful departed from the hand of hell, and from the pit of destruction: deliver them from the lion's mouth, that the grave devour them not; that they go not down to the realms of darkness: but let Michael, the holy standard-bearer, make speed to restore them to the brightness of glory: Which thou hast promised in ages past to Abraham and his seed. Sacrifice and prayer do we offer to thee, O Lord: do thou accept them for the souls departed, in whose memory we make this oblation: and grant them, Lord, to pass from death unto life: Which thou hast promised in ages past to Abraham and his seed.

HYMN 345

PROPER PREFACE

Through Jesus Christ our Lord: in whom the hope of a blessed resurrection hath shone upon us; that we who are saddened by the certainty of dying, may be comforted by the promise of immortal life to come. For the life of thy faithful people, O Lord, is not taken away, but changed; and though the tabernacle of their earthly habitation is dissolved, thou preparest them a house eternal in the heavens.

Sanctus, Benedictus and Agnus Dei

COMMUNIO Lux Aeterna
May light eternal shine, O Lord, upon them, for endless ages with thy blessed ones, for thou art gracious. V. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon them, for endless ages with thy blessed ones, for thou art gracious.

POST COMMUNION

HYMN 585

Absolution of the Dead

COLLECT—

Enter not into judgment with thy servant, O Lord, for in thy sight shall no man living be justified, unless thou grant him remission of all his sins. We therefore beseech thee, let not the sentence of thy judgment press hard upon him, whom the reasonable prayer of thy faithful Christian people commendeth unto thee; but grant that by the succour of thy grace, he who while living was sealed with the sign of the Holy Trinity, may be counted worthy to escape thine avenging judgment; Who livest and reignest, world without end. Amen.

Libera Me

Deliver me, O Lord, from death eternal in that day of trembling;
When heaven and earth shall be shaken;
When thou shalt come to judge the world by fire.
Trembling taketh hold upon me, and fearfulness,
As the sifting draweth on, and the wrath to come.
When heaven and earth shall be shaken.
Ah, that day, that day of anger, of calamity and misery;
Ah, that great day, and exceeding bitter!
When thou shalt come to judge the world by fire.
Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord:
And let light perpetual shine upon them.
Deliver me, O Lord, from death eternal in that day of trembling;
When heaven and earth shall be shaken;
When thou shalt come to judge the world by fire.
